

Oceania Academy Listening and Sharing session

Shaping Our Future Together: Oceania Academy of Cerebral Palsy and other Childhood-onset Disabilities Strategic Planning

Join us in our free listening and sharing session

11am-1pm, 20th November 2025, Australian Daylight Savings Time

This interactive AusACPDM Listening and Sharing session will be about reflecting on progress made since our last strategic plan, workshopping our updated purpose, and shaping priorities for our 2026-2030 strategic plan. This session is open to all, regardless of if you are a member. Come share your ideas, experiences, and aspirations as we continue partnering across lived and learned experience to lead change in childhood-onset disability.

This session will be of interest to clinicians, researchers, students, people with lived experience and all who are interested in the future of the Oceania Academy of Cerebral Palsy and other Childhood-onset Disabilities.

Presenters include: Alicia Spittle, Sarah McIntyre, Amy Hogan, Georgina Clutterbuck, Petra Karlsson, Fi Graham

The session will be facilitated by: Petra Karlsson
